ADmits DEFECTS IN INDICTMENT

Government Concedes Its Weakness in "Cotton Corner" Case.

Washington, October 23.—Admissions of defects in the indictment of James Patten, Eugene Scates, Frank B. Hayne and William P. Brown on charges of conspiracy to run a $10,000,000 corner in cotton in 1910 on the New York Cotton Exchange, in violation of the Sherman antitrust law, were made in the Supreme Court of the United States today by Solicitor-General Bullitt for the government.

The occasion was the second argument over the indictment, the court not being willing to decide last spring the correctness of the decision of the New York Federal Court in quashing several vital counts in the indictment.

The new solicitor-general had barely stated the case that the question in the case was the decision of the lower court that the Sherman antitrust law did not prohibit the "running of a corner," before Chief Justice White suggested that he would be pleased to have the government at some time define just what it meant by "corner."

Mr. Bullitt responded that it was a combination among dealers in a commodity, or outside capitalists, for the purpose of buying up the greater portion of the commodity and holding it back from sale until the demand so far outran the limited supply as to advance the price abnormally.

"Now, I want you to show how the indictment fits that definition," asked the Chief Justice.

That led the solicitor-general to announce that he abandoned the third count of the indictment, because the lower court found there was no charge in it that the defendants were to hold back the cotton from sale.

"Getting right down to brass tacks," declared Mr. Bullitt, "I frankly admit that the other count, the seventh, has one defect, as there is no express statement in it that the combination was created to withhold from the market the cotton bought."

The solicitor-general said that in dealing with this defect the government advanced two arguments. One was that the lower court construed the count to charge the running of a corner and the Supreme Court could do nothing now but accept that interpretation, notwithstanding it might have the duty to examine the interpretation if there was a conviction and an appeal.

The second argument, Mr. Bullitt said, was that the government had used the word "corner" in the count, and everybody in the world knew that a corner included a withholding from sale.

Justice Vandeventer suggested that the men who drafted the indictment did not have that in mind, perhaps, for immediately after the word "corner" he had defined the term without including a charge of withholding from sale.

Finally, Mr. Bullitt admitted that if neither one of these arguments was accepted, the government had no case. Former Senator John C. Spooner will be heard to-morrow in defense of the accused.

Minister Accepts Call

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., October 23.—Rev. Robert E. Elmore, of the First Christian Church, has tendered his resignation as pastor to the official board of his church to accept a call to the Walnut Hills Church, Cincinnati, one of the most important churches of his denomination in the Middle West. He has been in the ministry for 25 years and during that time has built a handsome church structure on Church Avenue, and built up the membership of the church to about 500. He has been most active in ministerial work in this city, and general regret over his intended departure is expressed, not only by the members of his own congregation, but by the people at large.
